
Letter of Intent

Greetings,

As an _____ my happiest moments are when learners can make the connection between theory and application. Within 20 years of instructing in business foundations, _____.
My experience in aiding this connection includes _____.

Academically

The inward passion has grown to educate both in the theoretical and applicable discipline of business and principles. My expertise has included opportunity to instruct as an adjunct for the local institution of higher education in the following areas: Principles of Management, and Ethics.

Philanthropically

An additional intrinsic Motivation includes: _____
Which allows _____

Sincerely,

Your Name

▮ Your Signature